ORDER

This matter came before the undersigned administratively pursuant to a Joint Stipulation to Dismissal of Claims with Prejudice, which was filed by the parties on June 13, 2022.

Based on the files, records, and proceedings herein, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Plaintiffs' claims in Counts II, III and IV of the First Amended Complaint which challenge the constitutionality of Minn. Stat. § 617.28 (the "STI Advertising Statute") are dismissed with prejudice.
2. Count VI of the First Amended Complaint which challenges the constitutionality of Minn. Stat. § 145.1621-22 (the "Fetal Tissue Disposition Statute") is dismissed with prejudice.

4. The parties are directed to advise the Minnesota Court of Appeals of the effect of this court’s Order on the appeal pending before it.
5. In light of the dismissal of the claims relating to the STI Advertising Statute, Plaintiffs’ motion seeking summary judgment on Count IV is moot.
6. In light of the dismissal of the claims relating to the Fetal Tissue Disposition Statute, Plaintiffs’ motion seeking summary judgment on Count VI and Defendants’ motion seeking summary judgment on Count VI are moot.
